Howatta, Oct. 1—Our community has recently been the theatre of the operations of the R. R. detectives with their blood hounds hunting for W. T. Brame, who formerly lived and in fact was raised in this neighborhood. A most delightful "storm party" was held at Esq. J. T. Coleman's on the 26th alt. The mere mention of the names of the fair hostesses, Misses May Wooten, Hattle Miller and Ruth Cooper, is sufficient to guarantee the enjoyment of all present.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Olivet (Baptist) church near Garrettsburg, conducted by Rev. Ken-dall and others. The field is a broad and inviting one and it is hoped much good may be accomplished. Several of our city dudes have received their new fall suits, and while the legs seem extravagantly large they barely admit the easy passage of the foot, a thing which previous fashone have never allowed.

Miss Mary Harlow has at last returned from her trip to Virginia and ill the Howell boys are glad.

actuated by charity for his fellow-men actuated by charity for his fellow-men and not by self-interest.

Mona Caird's query is on par with many of the puzzles which people have devised for centuries to vex themselves with. It either answers itself or is un-answerable, according to circum-stances, but the experience of society among civilized nations tend very strongly to overthrow the position which she has taken. If marriage is a failure it is a remarkable perpetuation of a delusion, but in any event it is pleasant to find a man whose views are so decided as those of the Duluth manufacturer. -San Francisco Chronicle.
